CARBONDALE'S FIRST CITY HALL

Carbondale City Hall, 1852-1860. This wooden building, in the Greek Revival style of architecture, was erected in 1852, and served as the seat of the government of Carbondale until February 14, 1860, when it was destroyed by a fire. This line engraving is reproduced here from Carbondale 1901.